PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Government's Motion for Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, (Doc. No. 41), which the Defendant has not opposed.

The United States requests, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b) and 18 U.S.C. § 924, that this Court enter a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture for the firearm that the Court found was involved in or used in the firearm violation of which the Defendant was convicted as charged in the Indictment. For good cause shown and based on the preponderance of the evidence, this Court hereby GRANTS the Motion, and FINDS AS FOLLOWS:

Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(d) authorizes the forfeiture of firearms and ammunition involved in violations of criminal laws of the United States, and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(1) provide for the preliminary forfeiture, pending petitions by third parties, of seized assets. Forfeiture is appropriate upon a finding of a nexus, or connection, between the property and count(s) of convictions. Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(1)(A). Here, the Court found that requisite nexus between the firearm the Government seeks a preliminary order of forfeiture on and the verdict on Count One (Doc. No. 35), and the firearms are accordingly forfeitable under Section 924(d).

It is, therefore ORDERED:

1. Based upon Defendant's conviction, the trial evidence, and the Verdict, the United States is authorized to maintain possession of the following property, and the property is hereby forfeited to the United States for disposition according to law, provided, however, that such forfeiture is subject to any and all third-party claims and interests, pending final adjudication herein:

One Glock, model 22, .40 caliber pistol, serial number HET998 and ammunition.

2. Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1), the Government shall publish notice of this order; notice of its intent to dispose of the property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct; and notice that any person, other than the Defendant, having or claiming a legal interest in any of the above-listed forfeited property must file a petition with the Court within thirty days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier. This notice shall state that the petition shall be for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in property that is the subject of this Order of Forfeiture, as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified.

3. Upon adjudication of all third-party interests, this Court will enter a Final Order of Forfeiture. If no third parties file petitions within the time provided by law, then this Order shall become final by operation of law.

SO ORDERED.

United States District Judge
